

IMPRINT-EUROPE Seminar on Implementing Pricing Policies in Transport: Phasing and Packaging
13-14 May 2003

Faculty Club, Katholieke University of Leuven, Belgium

Papers are available from the Website: www.imprint-eu.org

13 May 2003

09.30 – 10.00	Registration
10.00 – 12.30	Session I: Welcome and Overview Chair: Stef Proost Chairman's welcome and introduction Developments in EU Policy: Hugh Rees, DG TREN Practice and experience in Switzerland: Ueli Balmer Tea/Coffee break Phasing and Packaging of Pricing Reform: Erik Verhoef Discussion
12.30 – 14.00	Lunch
14.00 – 16.00	Session II: Implementation in practice: key issues IIA Key issues in rail, air and water transport Chair: Dirk Henstra Barriers to pricing reform: Nicole Adler Railway charging reform in Hungary: Katalin Tanczos Round Table and Discussion Tea/Coffee break	IIB Key issues in urban transport and interurban road Chair: Erik Verhoef Barriers to pricing reform: Esko Niskanen Road pricing issues and experiences in the US and Canada: Robin Lindsey Round Table and Discussion
15.30 – 16.00
16.30 – 17.30	Session III: Implementation paths in practice: modelling results IIIA Interurban road, rail, air and water transport Chair: Andrea Ricci Modelling of Implementation Paths: Dirk Henstra Modelling broader economic impacts of pricing reform: Inge Mayeres Discussion	IIIB Urban transport Chair: Richard Arnott Modelling of Implementation Paths: André de Palma Modelling Pricing Reform in Stockholm: Lars Mattson Discussion
19.30	Dinner

14 May 2003

9.30 – 11.00

Session IV: Policy Implications

Chair: Catharina Sikow

Policy Conclusions from the MC-ICAM project: Chris Nash, Esko Niskanen and Erik Verhoef

The pricing and investment package: Jos Dings

Policy implementation problems in other sectors: Richard Arnott

11.00 – 11.30

Tea/coffee break

11.30 – 12.30

Session V: Political acceptability

Chair: Christophe Deblanc

Acceptability of Pricing Reform: Jens Schade

Political economist's view: Amihai Glazer

Transport psychologist's view: Tommy Gärling

12.30 – 14.00

Lunch

14.00 – 15.30

Session VI: The way forward

Chair: Chris Nash

Conclusions from Parallel Sessions: Chris Nash

Using research to inform implementation: Steve Perkins

Summary round table/discussion

Conclusions: Chris Nash

15.30

Closing the seminar

Faculty Club

Groot Begijnhof 14-15

3000 Leuven

Tel: 32 016 32 95 00 Fax: 32 016 32 95 02

